Overview:

Imposter frauds and various scams, including IRS phone scams, lottery schemes, and the grandparent scam, are increasingly prevalent, targeting potential victims in New Jersey through calls, emails, and other methods.

To protect yourself from scams, we invite you to attend this session where a representative from the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs will guide you on avoiding falling victim to these schemes.

For inquiries regarding New Jersey businesses or professional licenses, or to report suspected fraud, please contact our Consumer Service Center at 800-242-5846.

For ongoing updates on Consumer Alerts and additional information, please visit our website at www.NJConsumerAffairs.gov.
